

Gus attended the opening of the new Plant City Advance Traffic Management System on Tuesday afternoon. The enhancements will allow the city to monitor traffic and adjust signal timings proactively when there is major congestion, a special event or an evacuation.

"This state of the art traffic system is a great advancement for the city and will provide citizens with safe and efficient travel throughout the area," Bilirakis said at the ribbon cutting ceremony.

